CALL OFF THE DOGS, THE WEBB BILL WON'T PASS

Council didn't have a quorum last night. Some out of town. Some at home. While others played dominoes. A bit later.

Special Meeting Thursday Night. But No Action on Webb Bill. Ordinance is Expected.

Good many Dothan citizens were disappointed last night when they met with the city council. They were disappointed because they thought that the Webb bill would be passed. But it was a disappointed crowd. Nothing was done. The crowd hung on till nine o'clock waiting for a quorum. But it didn't show up.

There were present Mayor B. J. Crawford, President of the Council, R. T. Ghent, B. R. Phipps, and A. D. Whiddon. C. C. Hughes, W. S. Bonham, A. E. Garner, O. R. Morgan, and I. C. L. were absent. Mr. L. L. L. was in Ocala. Mr. Bonham is in North Carolina, and the other gentlemen in the city, most of whom were down town engaged in an interesting game of dominoes.

R. D. Crawford, President of the council, took occasion to thank the citizens for their presence and thought that it would be a good idea for them to attend the meetings of the council regularly.

It was soon discovered that not a sufficient number would be present to transact business, but the council didn't adjourn till nine o'clock to give any a chance who might come late.

It has been freely talked for several days that the council would pass the Webb bill. But it was not in the measure to that extent.

Probably the citizens will if they keep up the enthusiasm. Try some other method of lessening the blind eye which may be through an injunction before the council judge taking the matter out of the council's hands.

There is to be a call meeting of the council again Thursday night to attend to some other special matters and it may be that the Webb bill will be considered at this time.

R. P. Boyd of Montgomery was in the city a while today.

HUNTING FOR THAW WITH WIRELESS ON LAND AND SEA

New York, Aug. 10.—A long, air wireless stretched out over the Atlantic today in search for Harry Keith Thaw, the Pittsburgh millionaire who escaped from White Swan State Asylum for the Insane in which he was confined for six years after his acquittal for the murder of Stanford White.

Following his sensational escape Sunday morning, Thaw was traced to South Norwalk, Conn., and is now believed to be speeding toward South America. A search is being made on land and sea.

District Attorney Whitman says Thaw cannot be extradited if he is here. There is no indictment pending against Thaw in New York and he cannot be brought back because he was legally admitted to the United States after his escape from the asylum.

Rapid investigation is going on at Matthews.

New York, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Mary Copely Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, continued today receiving visitors at her hotel apartments and expressing to all her intrigued in at her son's escape.

She indignantly denied that the Thaw family knew of the matter until they were informed by news paper men.

Lillian Nevitt Thaw, lamented that her husband was a fugitive. She said he is dangerous to the community. She protested the police had her presence on the New York stage denied Thaw to attempt the escape.

Thaw to Take a Rest

Mrs. Mary Copely Thaw received a letter from her son Harry Thaw about noon today. He said that he had planned to take a rest before going to the Thaw country home in Falmouth, at Cresskill, Pa.

BUILDS COFFIN ABOUT BODY OF DEAD HUSBAND

Grizzly Gulch, Ark., Aug. 10.—A little woman in a long, black dress with a lapel of black, and a black mourning into this camp today, and in a few minutes was in the hands of a pitiful heroine. Every man in the street helped to undo the hitch which fastened a plank coffin to the park saddle and carry it into a house where the little woman cried her heart out over the body of her husband.

Her name, she presently told her new friends was Mary Strubbs. Her husband, P. L. Strubbs, a prospector was killed and his partner badly hurt last Friday in a cave on their claim. She said the injured man was comfortable as possible placed provisions where he could reach them and built the coffin around her husband's body and succeeded in getting it on the horse's back. She walked 24 hours with scarcely a halt to reach Grizzly Gulch.

THE COUNCIL THINKS THE PEOPLE WRONG

Evidently the city council felt that the people are wrong in the demands to have the Webb bill passed in Dothan.

It is plain that the council has not been acting in and with the people about the bill. If they were, it is not with the council. It is not with the people. It is not with the council. It is not with the people.

HOUSTON COUNTY TEACHERS BEGIN BIG 5-DAY CONVENTION

At their regular meeting last night, the Houston County Teachers Association began their 5-day convention. It is expected that the convention will be a very successful one.

The convention will be held in the high school building. The first session was held last night and was attended by one of the best sessions ever held.

The teachers of Houston County met in one of the best sessions ever held in this county. Many other teachers from other counties were present.

The convention was called to order by Hon. J. H. Bell, county superintendent of education at about 8 o'clock. After a few appropriate remarks concerning the purpose of the meeting, he requested the teachers to sing America, after which Rev. W. M. Bush conducted devotional exercises.

Mr. Bell then introduced Hon. O. L. Tompkins, who made the welcome address. Mr. Tompkins' speech was replete with humor and pathos that quickly won its way to the teachers' hearts, thus making them feel as much at home in Dothan as any where.

After the close of his address, Mr. Bell next introduced Prof. C. L. Fowler, who made the response to the welcome address. His speech, though short, was yet well chosen, thanking the people of the city on behalf of the teachers for the courtesies extended them.

The county superintendent then introduced Miss Pamphlet, who immediately won her way to the hearts of the teachers by her humorous and interesting address. Her main theme was the three 'R's' in relation to the old time method with comparisons to modern methods. Her modern three 'R's' were Religion, Regularity, and Revolution. On the close of her address, Mr. Bell introduced Prof. J. M. Wright, the conductor of the train into Mr. Wright's principal theme.

LOVE IS ETERNAL

Love is eternal. It never can die.
Though we fall with laughter
on drug II with sorrow,
Not the primal sea nor the sun
in the sky,
Not the reaches of space are no
more of a moment,
As the waters of ocean in vapor are
condensing,
Thus in life's troubled stream
through the green valley
wending,
Have the ocean again for the ultimate winning,
Shall not Love, through all changes,
move on to its ending
In the bosom of God, whence it had its beginning?

Love is immortal. It is not of earth.
Though ill fortune retard it, what
what does it matter?
Shall a harvest of roses be deemed
of no worth
When the tale of each canker is plugged in the atter?
If earth's waters are present thru
heaven's raining,
Shall the ill of the world (ill) our
love with repining?
Here we sow, but not here reap
the seed of quinine,
For the fruits of our love, past all
human dividing,
In the bosom of God we shall harvest forever.

TO MY WIFE,

Trusty, dusky, vivid, true,
With eyes of gold and bramble dew,
Sweet lips and black eyelids,
The Great Artisan made my mate
Honors, courage, valor, fire,
A love that life could never tire,
Death quench nor evil stir,
The mighty Master gave to her.

Teacher, pupil, comrade, wife,
A fellow-farer thru' rough life,
Heart-whole and soul free,
The august Father gave to me
